How do sliding scale fees at Sixth Street's Youth Program (SSYP) work?

Sixth Street Community Center is dedicated to making our youth programs accessible to all children regardless of financial means. We strive to create a sliding scale programs fee structure that is accommodating and considerate of family households at all income levels.

We are a small non-profit that operates primarily through small private contributions and our programming fees. Program fees are essential to SSYP's livelihood as well as it's ability to offer reduced fees to those who need it most. We recognize that New York City is increasingly becoming less and less affordable; therefore we aim to make our programming as affordable as possible while still upholding the standards and quality of our programming.

If you would like to apply to receive reduced programming fees, our process is detailed below. Please indicate on the program application that you would like to apply for sliding scale fees. Complete the financial form at the end of this letter. In order to be considered, you must answer all questions and attach the first page of your most recent income tax return, proof of unemployment or disability.

Here is a general guideline for how we may determine a sliding scale tuition rate.

Rates are based on the combined income of any number of parents that support your child (married or separated):

Parent/Guardian(s) Income	Rate (5 days/week, pickup included)
$80,000 and up	$190/week (or $165/week, for no pickup)
$70-79,999	$180/week (or $150/week, for no pickup)
$60-69,999	$165/week (or $125/week, for no pickup)
$50-59,999	$145/week (or $100/week, for no pickup)
$40-49,999	$115/week (or $75/week, for no pickup)
$30-39,999	$85/week (or $50/week, for no pickup)
$30,000 and under	$50/week (or $40/week, for no pickup)

 Rates vary for students attending less than 5 days a week. Students are required to attend at least 2 days a week.

Please note that these figures are only guidelines. Typically 90% of our of students receive some sort of financial assistance. We are able to offer assistance to a greater number students, only when financial needs are calculated accurately and honestly. At times we are able to provide more assistance than what is provided in our sliding scale guide.

We thank you for your interest in the Sixth Street Youth Program. We welcome your children and wish to accommodate your financial needs as best as we can. After we receive your financial aid form, we will get back to you with an update on what we can offer in terms of financial aid. Please view our payment policy FAQs page or if you have any other questions feel free to e-mail jen@sixthstreetcenter.org and cc: laura.sixthstreet@gmail.com or call us at (212-677-1863)

With thanks and gratitude,
Jen Chantrtanapichate
